

Data

Thursday, October 29, 2009

Primary Data- You collected the data your self so it's called Primary Data because you did the data yourself

Secondary Data- When you find the data in a book or on the internet

Question Biased- A survey question must be unbiased. That is the question must not lead a person toward the particular answer.